The musical score is written for three parts: Treble, Alto, and Bass. It is in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The first system includes the lyrics 'wit nor wealth, Nor yet a rope to hang himself, With a' and features tempo markings 'poco rit.' and 'a tempo'. The second system continues with 'fa la la la la la la la la, with a fa la la la la'. The third system is divided into '1st. Verse' and '2nd. Verse', with the lyrics 'la la' and '2. Here's a' respectively. The music consists of a melody line and two accompaniment lines.

Here's a toast unto His Majesty,
 With a fa la la la la la la;
 Success to all his policies,
 With a fa la la la la la la.
 And he that will not pledge his health,
 I wish him neither wit nor wealth,
 Nor yet a pond to drown himself,
 With a fa la la la la la la la la la.
 With a fa la la la la la la.

NOTE—This song may also be sung as a Chorus throughout. • Words and music are both found in Playford's "Musical Companion" (1672), and the latter in "Merry Drollery" (1670).
